Norfolk, VA - Andria McClellan's campaign for the newly created 21st State Senate district announced that it raised over $100,000 from July 1st to December 31st, 2022, ending with $122,000 cash on hand. This brings her total fundraising amount to over $200,000 since launching her campaign on March 21st, 2022. Andria has received more than 300 contributions, and 93 percent of her donations came from within Virginia.

Her strong fundraising hauls continue to be without support from any public utility companies.

"Our strong fundraising proves that residents of the 21st District support strong leadership in Richmond that will deliver results. The outpouring of support in a few short months proves that we are in a strong position to win in 2023.

"We have established an expansive coalition of support from Virginians who demand that we build a stronger, more inclusive economy, address climate change and mitigate flooding, protect reproductive rights, make our communities safer, and create a public school system that prepares students for the jobs of the future. I am proud of our campaign and look forward to continuing the momentum in the months to come. We will win this race and deliver for the people of the 21st District."

Andria McClellan is a Norfolk City Councilmember who represents half of Norfolk, a regional leader and businesswoman, wife and a mom of three Norfolk public school students. She has been a fierce advocate for flood mitigation, expanding access to broadband, increasing public transit, reducing gun violence and ensuring transparency and citizen engagement.
